

PRESS RELEASE—November 09, 2010

Trailways Strengthening Its Canadian Connections

Fairfax, VA – The Trailways Transportation System, (Trailways) continues strengthening its international connections with its latest addition, McCoy Trailways, which is based in Kingston, Ontario. The company joins Trailways' other Eastern Canadian transport stockholder companies, Great Canadian Trailways based in Kitchener, Ontario; and, La Chaudière Trailways, which is based in Saint-Georges, Quebec.

Strategically positioned between Toronto and Montreal, and only 30 minutes from the U.S. border, McCoy Trailways specializes in charter and tour motorcoach services and operates a fleet of 30 full-sized, mid-size and mini-coaches. The company provides passenger shuttle transportation for Syracuse, New York airport, train, and bus terminals, as well as packaged tour products that include destinations like Atlantic City, Buffalo, Florida, Branson, and Nashville. NASCAR and other sporting events are also popular with McCoy customers, and its charter clients include sports teams.

“Our clientele is pretty broad,” said Shawn Geary, president of McCoy Trailways. “We serve young sports fans to seniors wishing to travel to east-coast casinos and other places.”

Geary said its new Trailways affiliation is a major business step forward for his company. “We are excited to be part of such a prestigious organization,” he said, “to be connected with such a network of quality operators. I look forward to learning more about the industry and in networking with my team of Trailways operators in garnering new business, their help with road assistance and the other good benefits that come with being a stockholder in Trailways.”

Trailways President/CEO, Gale Ellsworth, said the organization is delighted to welcome McCoy Trailways aboard its team; and, honored to be partnering with yet another, outstanding Canadian bus company.

“Team Trailways is rolling into its 75th anniversary year in 2011, and we are so pleased to have McCoy ride with us into our next decade,” said Ellsworth. “The Trailways brand is achieving increased recognition around the globe as the premier organization of independent passenger transport companies that deliver uncompromising service and safety to the traveling public. McCoy Trailways will assist us in strengthening the brand throughout North America.”

For more information, contact Shawn Geary, President of McCoy Trailways by phone; 1-613-384-0012, or email: shawn@gomccoy.com; or contact Gale Ellsworth, President and CEO of Trailways at 703-691-3052.

###

The Trailways Transportation System (Trailways) is an independently operated motorcoach system. Comprised of privately-owned/operated ground transport companies, Trailways has an enviable reputation for providing a diverse system of safe, secure, and reliable passenger services. The network offers a wide selection of travel and transport solutions, including corporate and convention shuttle support, group and private charters, school and military moves, scheduled route and inter-city travel, contract management, ADA-assisted travel, sightseeing, tours, and trip planning and connection throughout North America and parts of Europe.

For more information, call 793-691-3052; or visit www.trailways.com.